About

Founded in Bangkok, Thailand in 2000, Devarana Spa, the luxurious Thai-inspired spa chain and part of the internationally reputed Dusit International Group, was established to delivering “outstanding spa services” at selected five- star hotels.

Concept

“Devarana” (pronounced te-wa-run) comes from Thai-Sanskrit, meaning “garden in heaven”. It dates back to ancient Thai literature, called “Tribhumpharuang” also known as “Traibhumikatha”, written by Phraya Lithai. In this literary work, the writer described these particular gardens as situated at heaven’s gates, surrounded by gardens and ponds, with a heavenly scent and a nurturing environment. The décor of the gardens glimmers with silver and gold, and is filled with natural stones and gems while soft melodic music played by harp, flute and other traditional musical instruments is floated in the air.

Inspired by the concept of the garden in heaven, Devarana Spa excites the senses and makes guests feel truly special. Luxurious pampering and healing treatments are offered in a soothing and stress-relieving environment. The contemporary Thai design and décor invite guests to transcend the everyday world and provides the relaxing and welcoming atmosphere, in which they can enjoy premium spa treatments with traditional Thai service and hospitality.
